This update fixes a lot of bugs, including but not limited to, the purchase confirmation code being sent to our users email address(es) instead of the one it was supposed to be. The icons are also being added to the catalog based on your previous orders, not the date of the catalog's creation. You must have the latest version of the program in order for the icon searches to work. This update also significantly speeds up the order process. If you have any questions, problems or suggestions for the icon search, please, contact us directly.
