Q: What is the difference between Photoshop and Fireworks? A: Fireworks is a vector-based, raster image editing program, specifically designed for graphic designers. It is a tool that draws shapes and works with an array of different shapes that include elliptical curves. Fireworks also has printing capabilities and can be used to create vector images. Fireworks can be used to create branding styles, logos, social media graphics, and more. You can find tutorials and tips on Fireworks from many Web sites. Elements, by the way, is a tool that has several similar functions to Photoshop and Fireworks and competes with them for the same job.

The accusation against the former civil rights leader and onetime presidential candidate is one of three women who have come forward in recent days to say they experienced inappropriate sexual contact or harassment by him. The others are Karla Dixon, now a spokeswoman in the elder Mr. Jackson's organization, the Rainbow PUSH Coalition; and Wendy Ellis, who said she met Mr. Jackson in the early 1980s when she was a secretary in the campaign office of Representative Charles B. Rangel, Democrat of New York and Mr. Jackson's friend. Ms. Dixon has said that she worked with Mr. Jackson in the Rangel campaign and the National Rainbow Coalition and that she witnessed inappropriate behavior, including kissing and pulling off of her blouse, at least once. She said she reported this incident to the congressman and named him. She has not said when the incident occurred or who was present. Mr. Jackson and Mr. Rangel have denied any wrongdoing. While on the stand, when asked about what he could have done differently, Mr. Jackson said he should have fired the woman who first complained about him, not later, when the situation was established. The woman who accused Mr. Jackson, who is in his 50s, is being represented by a lawyer who is not with the Spotlight team. A lawyer for Mr. Jackson did not return calls for comment. Ms. Dixon, who is part of the Spotlight team, could not be reached. Floor 2 • Floor 3 • Floor 4 • Floor 5 Dive into the fantasy world of Guarana Star in this new Interactive Manga game.
